Market Day 2023 is a two day celebration of the leading voices of design. Presented at the A&D Building, this trade-only event brings together topics ranging from the latest trends and newest innovations presented by the foremost thought leaders defining our future through design. Using the luxury marketplace and the worlds leading brands as the stage, Market Day 2023 will unite the industry and celebrate the very best in design.

The inaugural event in 2022 brought top keynote speakers to the building including internationally recognized Maria Porro, President of Salone del Mobile.Milano, and Pamela McNally of the NKBA, as well as editors from leading publications such as The Architect's Newspaper, Aspire Design and Home, Design NYC, Galerie Magazine, House Beautiful, Better Homes & Gardens, Interior Design, and Luxe Interiors + Design to host expert designer panels. Attendees also explored the latest product introductions in our showrooms through guided tours, open houses, specialty lectures, as well as chef demonstrations.

Programming will take place in various showrooms where capacity ranges from 20-50 people. Additionally, The Architects & Designers Building Theater on the 4th floor will have a capacity of 100+ and is reserved for keynote speakers and larger programs.
